Department of Pediatrics
King George Medical University

ISPID

Indian Society for Primary Immune Deficiency

in collaboration with

FPID

For Primary Immunodeficiency Diseases

We welcome you to come and learn what primary immunodeficiency diseases (PID) have taught us. The field of PIDs is growing at rapid pace due to advances in Genomics and Immunology.

The focus of this meeting is autoinflammation and autoimmunity in PIDs. In addition common PIDs will also be discussed. The meeting should interest postgraduates in Pediatrics and Medicine, fellows in clinical Immunology and Rheumatology, basic scientists in Immunology besides the members of the ISPID.

The meeting will be held in the sprawling green campus of SGPGI, Lucknow which has a state of the art convention center. In addition you can explore Lucknow, the city of Nawabs and buy Chikan clothes with traditional embroidery of Lucknow.

Come join us.
